

Messaging Client

The Messaging Client is a Java client for connecting to and receiving messages from the Fedora Messaging System. Please see the Messaging Client section of the Messaging documentation for more information.