This demonstration site provides a good overview of the basic features that DSpace offers:

Side Menu

Please refer to the figure below (Figure 2) for a visual representation of items 1-5.

1. Search

- Based on where you are in the system, this lets you search for an individual community or collection

2. Browse

- This option lets you browse an individual community or collection

3. My Account

- Options to Login to an existing account or to Register for a new account

4. Discover

- Based on where you are in the system, these lists will change to become Community/Collection specific

5. RSS Feeds

- Based on where you are in the system, these links provide RSS/Atom Feeds specific to an individual Community or Collection

- DSpaceDirect Demo Repository: Contains introductory text, a list of machine-based interfaces (OAI-PMH, SWORD version 1 and 2), and a link to DSpaceDirect Customers.
- Communities in DSpace: Lists several communities like 'Department of Mathematics' and 'Department of Physics'.
- Search DSpace: A search box with a 'Go' button.
- Recently Added: A list of recently added items with titles and authors.
- Search DSpace (Right): A search box with a 'Go' button.
- Browse: A list of browse options like 'All of DSpace', 'Communities & Collections', 'By Issue Date', 'Authors', 'Titles', and 'Subjects'.
- My Account: Links for 'Login' and 'Register'.
- Discover: A list of discover options categorized by Author, Subject, and Date Issued.
- RSS Feeds: A list of RSS feeds for 'RSS 1.0', 'RSS 2.0', and 'Atom'.

Numbered callouts (1-5) are placed on the right side of the interface:

- 1: Search DSpace (Right)
- 2: Browse
- 3: My Account
- 4: Discover
- 5: RSS Feeds

DSpaceDirect Demo Repository

This is the DSpaceDirect demonstration repository, based on DSpace open source software.

With DSpaceDirect you can choose to enable/disable DSpace out-of-the-box features, as well as customize your URL or theme (based on the DSpace Mirage theme). Upgrades and maintenance are also included in the cost.

Besides this primary user interface, DSpaceDirect also offers the following machine-based interfaces:

- OAI-PMH (for external metadata harvesting) - More info on OAI-PMH protocol and its usage
- SWORD \(version 1\) (for remote deposit) - More info on SWORD protocol and its usage.
- SWORD \(version 2\) (for remote deposit) - More info on SWORD protocol and its usage.

DSpaceDirect Customers: More detailed information on getting started with DSpaceDirect may be found in the DSpaceDirect KnowledgeBase.
