The screenshot shows the 'New item' submission form in DSpace 7. At the top, there's a browser window title 'DSpace 7 - Submission form' and navigation icons. Below the title bar, the form is titled 'New item'. A dashed box indicates where to drop content, with a link to 'browse'. To the right of this box is a '+ Add more' button. Below this is a 'Collection' dropdown menu currently set to 'Sample collection'. The main form area is divided into sections: 'Describe' (highlighted in blue), 'Indexing', 'Files & access condition', 'CC Licence', and 'Distribution License'. The 'Describe' section contains fields for 'Authors' (Last Name, First Name, and a '+ Q' button), 'Title*' (a text input field), 'Other Titles' (a text input field), 'Date of Issue*' (Year, Month, Day dropdowns), and 'Publisher' (a text input field). The 'Indexing' section has a dropdown menu with an orange 'i' icon. The 'Files & access condition' section has a dropdown menu with an orange 'i' icon. The 'CC Licence' section has a dropdown menu with an orange 'i' icon. The 'Distribution License' section has a dropdown menu with an orange 'i' icon. At the bottom of the form, there are three buttons: 'Discard', 'Save for later', and 'Deposit'.
