

Jim Downing

On the DSpace project I'm a committer and a member of the technical review group. I've been working on and around DSpace since early 2004, and I'm currently on the JISC funded SPECTRa project, looking at getting Chemistry data into IRs.

I have a work related blog which includes DSpace news aggregation and commentary.