Developers Meeting on Weds, April 21, 2010

Agenda

- Announcements
    - Tim on vacation April 22-25 (no availability), and at out-of-town meetings April 26-30 (limited availability)
        - Any volunteer to lead next week's meeting (April 28)? Likely main topics include 1.6.1 updates (and discuss any issues that need feedback/discussion), GSoC project announcements/planning, further JIRA review (if not caught up by then).
    - GSoC Update
        - Projects are being decided upon (join 'dspace-gsoc' mentors list if you want to have input). Likely 4 will be accepted. Accepted projects announced on April 26.
- Up for vote / discussion
    - JIRA Upgrade & Merger with Fedora JIRA??
        - JIRA 4.x has a much improved interface & many nice new features (we're currently on JIRA 3.13).
            - See the 4.1 and 4.0 Release notes which list the new features (with screenshots).
            - There's also a 4.x demo video and a 4.x JIRA Sandbox.
        - DuraSpace is proposing to upgrade us to JIRA 4.x and merge our JIRA with Fedora's to form a single DuraSpace JIRA.
        - DuraSpace also suggests migrating our usernames into the DuraSpace "Crowd", which means your DSpace Wiki and JIRA will share the same login/password.
            - Crowd is another Atlassian product, which provides single sign-on to all Atlassian products (e.g. Confluences, JIRA, etc.)
- Updates on DSpace 1.6.1 bug fix release (Kim Shepherd)
    - 1.6.1 Open Issues: 1.6.1 Version in JIRA
- JIRA Catch-Up – starting with issue DS-517 (and getting as far as we can).
    - Search for recent JIRA Issues

Meeting Notes

Vote in favor of JIRA upgrade/merger, 1.6.1 updates, Docs to Wiki?

- Vote on DuraSpace proposal to upgrade us to JIRA 4.x and potentially merge our JIRA with Fedora's into a single DuraSpace JIRA: +7 in favor, +0 against
- 1.6.1 Updates
    - Kim Shepherd - "1.6.1 update: we seem to be on track.. not a great deal of code committed yet, but i'm sitting on a few patches that are just waiting for a bit more testing, as other others, so it'd be awesome to get some of these tested/reviewed further so they can be committed over the next week"
    - 1.6.1 Issues requiring further review/advice
        - http://jira.dspace.org/jira/browse/DS-497
        - http://jira.dspace.org/jira/browse/DS-509
        - http://jira.dspace.org/jira/browse/DS-527
        - http://jira.dspace.org/jira/browse/DS-542
        - http://jira.dspace.org/jira/browse/DS-547
        - http://jira.dspace.org/jira/browse/DS-548
- General proposal (by Mark Diggory) to move all DSpace Documentation to Wiki (Not voted on yet)
    - Prototype of pre-1.6.0 Docs in Wiki
    - Also see Fedora's Wiki-based Docs as another example: Fedora Repository 3.4.2 Documentation

Action Items

- Future vote on Docs in Wiki idea. Do we move entirely from DocBook Docs to Wiki Docs?
