All the tickets must be merged in sprint-i18n this week, for merging in main branch next week. Ralph will do the release.

Open email threads

- 1. Error after installation (no MySQL, no attachment)
  - a. Andrew: looks like this user is using a DB, but should be using a TDB ; so there might be a doc mismatch
  - b. Brian: (parsing attachment) looks like two things are loading at the same time. (After discussion, agrees to take care of it.)
- 2. VIVO 1.11.1: People page is empty (incomplete triples)
  - a. Brian: they're trying to upgrade to 1.11 ; bug was fixed with Brian's help, who asked for the user to post the log and fix

- b. Andrew: anything else. Georgy discussed the general delete generator feature in the user channel. Would it be a desired feature?
- c. Brian: there was a really old deletion feature using annotations in the ontologies (?) ; nothing left of it, but traces. It was too low a priority, and too high maintenance. It would be useful to discuss that feature in the future.

Sprint update

Release blockers

1. Needing additional testing/review

- a. <https://jira.lyrasis.org/browse/VIVO-1814>
  - i. Andrew: should go through review
- b. <https://jira.lyrasis.org/browse/VIVO-1929>
  - i. Andrew: works for Georgy?
  - ii. Georgy: yes indeed
- c. <https://jira.lyrasis.org/browse/VIVO-1947>
  - i. Andrew: seems good from a functionality standpoint.
- d. <https://jira.lyrasis.org/browse/VIVO-1443>
  - i. Andrew: seems good from a functionality standpoint.
  - ii. Ralph wants to review too.
  - iii. Benjamin: would like to test with overlays ; asks WWelling more details about how the checksum works
  - iv. William: more infos about how to generate checksum are in comments
  - v. Michel: will there be more comprehensive doc? Worries it might cause problems in an install process using many overlays
  - vi. Ralph: yes, but a move toward VIVO in a box, and greater stability
  - vii. Andrew: will add doc (in JIRA?) ; but Wiki doc will also be needed.
  - viii. Andrew : (Answering Georgy's question for precisions) VIVO still needs to get build by Maven, but once that build is done, you get a war file in one of the target directory ; then you can both point toward the build, or drop a war file in Tomcat (or is it both??).
  - ix. Ralph: it has been tested ; but any install process needs to get adjusted whenever you upgrade

2. Needing to be worked / resolved

- a. <https://jira.lyrasis.org/browse/VIVO-1762> and <https://jira.lyrasis.org/browse/VIVO-1914>
  - i. Andrew: can't ask the community to test without documentation
  - ii. Ralph: 1762 is in progress, should be done shortly
  - iii. Andrew: do we know anyone who could help with 1914? This one is critical for a release.
  - iv. Brian: interested, but busy
- b. <https://jira.lyrasis.org/browse/VIVO-1921>
  - i. Andrew: Matthias is working on this. Might have a resolution this week.
- c. <https://jira.lyrasis.org/browse/VIVO-1950>
  - i. Benjamin Gross: not ready ; there's a solution that works in 2 situations, but more testing needed ; should be fixed this week.

Varia

- 1. Bruce: researched Kafka ; stumbled upon a company that offers Kafka services (<https://www.confluent.io/>). A brief 15 min presentation could be set up.
  - a. Andrew: either Dev Call or Data ingest call
  - b. Ralph: knows them, might be of interest.
- 2. Bruce : are there any thoughts that should be conveyed to Lyrasis on moving forward once Andrew leaves? If so, Bruce can be reached at beherbert@tamu.edu
