Edits to Hypatia Collection Home pages

We are currently manually creating the FoXML for Hypatia collections directly from each institutions EADs. Please review your Collection home page for each of your collections and document any errors you see on this page so we can fix the FoXML and correct the error. Please find your collection at http://hypatia-test.stanford.edu/ and review. We have also implemented edit screens for collection and item. Set edit screens are currently not ready. Please go ahead and test this functionality but please note that any edits on the test server WILL NOT be carried over to hypatia-demo. To edit you will need to login as username archivist1 with a password of password.
