

AIMS Symposium

The AIMS Symposium is an unconference scheduled for May 13-14, 2011 to discuss aspects of working with electronic records in collecting repositories. The symposium is part of the The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation-funded project Born Digital Collections: An Inter-Institutional Model for Stewardship \(AIMS\). The AIMS partners are University of Virginia, Stanford University, Yale University, and University of Hull.

The hashtag for Twitter, etc. for the symposium is #aims.

Venue

Omni Hotel Charlottesville

235 West Main Street,
Charlottesville, Virginia 22902
Phone: (434) 971-5500, Fax: (434) 979-4456

Google map of hotel and restaurants

Symposium Information

- Schedule
- Proposed topics
- Lightning talks
- Delegates - list and introductions
- Arrangements - arrival, departure, and Thursday night meetup