Update on 1.5 release plans

- release candidate 2 has passed all tests!

Notable Development List Traffic

- Designating an external namespace to link to another VIVO rather than display local data
- Debugging VIVO in Eclipse
- Deleting publications of a person – look in the Publications section of the wiki page
- Custom form for selection or addition of a new item
- How to implement a Digital Vita CV and biosketch web service for VIVO
- Installing the Harvester on Ubuntu
- Harvesting grants from [NIH reporter|http://projectreporter.nih.gov/reporter.cfm]

Items for next week

- feedback on the 1.5 release
- options for migrating off the SourceForge hosted wiki
- the larger question of whether and when to move to Github (possible guest speaker from Github in the next few weeks)
