

Implementation and Development Call 20130612 - Open Review and Prioritization of Tasks for VIVO 1.6

Agenda

To review the open issues for version 1.6 in JIRA, who they are assigned to, and their time estimates.

Once that has been done, we can review the available time until the July 22 code freeze and see whether each developer involved has enough hours remaining to complete his or her tasks.

Background

Please see the VIVO v1.6 release planning page for additional discussion and links to individual issues.
