Theme: Project planning and communication for VIVO teams

Suggested topics and questions:

- What tools does you or your site use to plan projects?
    - examples: Service Now, Scrum, kanban, wikis
- How do you track issues?
    - examples: JIRA, Service Now, email
    - How do users report issues? Do they call or email a help desk, complete a web form, or email the VIVO team directly?
- How do you communicate within your project?
    - How often do you have project meetings?
- How do you manage your release(s) to production?
    - Email targeted users, e.g. faculty/researcher with VIVO profiles
    - Campus-wide e-memo
    - Web posting on VIVO site or other
- Who are the stakeholders for your project?
    - examples: Provost, CIO, representative body of users (faculty senate), Deans, Department Chairs
    - How do you report to them?

The last 10 minutes of the call will be saved for discussion around which themes attendees would like covered in future calls.
