Agenda

- What problem was this group trying to solve?
- What was the process for making these recommendations?
- What are the recommendations?
    1. Develop concrete, visible guidelines through identifying gaps in community processes to assist VIVO contributors (current and potential) with organizing and sustaining work.
    2. Update and promote the current catalog of contributed applications and tools
    3. Create a "VIVO labs" organization to facilitate co--development of new projects
- How do we put these recommendations into practice?
- Any questions?
