Form Creator

Form Creator is simple software which displays forms and their related prompts on the screen. With a forms creator all you need is to answer the on-screen questions, then click a button to send the completed form to the word processor set up on your computer.