Web site update. Two pages have been added to the VIVO web site, <http://vivoweb.org>. The About page describes the VIVO project, software and ontology. Please refer people to this page who are looking for a short answer to the question "What is VIVO?" The Corporate Sponsorship page describes the Duraspace corporate sponsorship program and how the program works for VIVO. Please refer any companies with a potential interest in supporting the VIVO project to this page for a brief overview of the corporate sponsorship program. Both pages are available from the menus at the top of every page, and from the footer on every page.
