Minutes

1. 4.7.4 Release
 - a. Released last week — any comments or concerns?
 - b. Michael Durbin, Esmé Cowles: we've deployed to production and haven't seen any issues
 - c. Jared Whiklo mentioned he didn't have permission to create new wiki space for documentation
 - i. Andrew Woods will document the process so it's easier for the next release
 - d. David Wilcox: we'll send out an official release announcement once the docs are done
2. Import/Export Utility
 - a. Ben Pennell hasn't gotten any feedback on <https://github.com/fcrepo4-labs/fcrepo-import-export/pull/109>
 - i. It's a pretty big PR, significant refactoring of import
 - ii. Esmé: I haven't looked at it much, but plan to test and review when I can
 - iii. Mike: I plan to review it, probably next week. I can test against my production repository, so that will be a good large-scale test.
 - iv. Danny Bernstein: I'll also test it
 - b. Import/Export verifier
 - i. It would be good to have this for large-scale testing
 - ii. Shouldn't hold up #109, but it would be useful for testing it
 - c. Is anybody using the Import/Export utility now?
 - i. Not yet, but some are close
3. Upcoming API alignment sprints
 - a. Several people are signed up for the upcoming sprints to align Fedora 4 with the API spec
 - b. Delta document coming along
 - i. Esme: API spec editors have been working on versioning recently, that part of the spec is pretty solid
 - ii. Danny will review that part of the delta document
4. In-flight ticket review
