Notes

"Prohibit PATCH on LDPCv"

- "an implementation MUST NOT allow PATCH to modify a LDPCv's containment triples"
 - This is covered for PUT in the LDP spec

5.2.4.1 LDP servers should not allow HTTP PUT to update a LDPC's containment triples; if the server receives such a request, it should respond with a 409 (Conflict) status code.

- ACTION (Andrew Woods): Update PR-244 to move SHOULD text up to LDPC, roll back other updates, and remove #ldpcvpatch section

An implementation MAY `Allow: PATCH`, but if so, it SHOULD NOT permit clients to modify containment triples.

"Propose the addition of new terms to the LDP namespace"

- <https://github.com/fcrepo/fcrepo-specification/issues/245>
 - Work towards moving the versioning section into LDP-Next?
 - Separate question of URI-R and URI-G being the same resource
 - Shared sense that versioning terms should be memento terms, as opposed to ldp namespace
 - ACTION (Andrew Woods): look up memento mailing list discussion on possible ontology
1. do we want to split URI-R and URI-G in the spec?
- likely not, memento spec allows it
- ACTION (Andrew Woods): To forward the possibility of collaboration in issue-245
 - we are open to moving towards the LDP spec

"Clarify reliable method to write into LDPCv"

- <https://github.com/fcrepo/fcrepo-specification/issues/250>
- How do we support MUST POST LDPC and MAY POST LDPCv?
- ACTION (Daniel Lamb): To create PR: non-norm: LDPCv is both a timemap and a container, but does not allow POST

"Adding section clarifying acl:Append"

- <https://github.com/fcrepo/fcrepo-specification/pull/206>
- Disallow PUT on with acl:Append
- ACTION (Daniel Lamb): To approve/merge

Esme to take next week's agenda
