

2018 Leadership Group Bronze and Community Election Procedure

Election of Bronze Representative

Nomination

Individuals at VIVO Bronze member institutions can be nominated by members of VIVO Bronze member institutions. If no nominations for the Bronze member are received, the seat will be unfilled.

Nominations must be received by midnight, May 28, eastern U.S. time.

Election

One member of the Leadership Group will be elected from those nominated. The community liaison at each VIVO Bronze member of the leadership group will receive one ballot and can vote for one new member of the leadership group. The top vote getter will be elected. Tied candidates will face a run-off.

The election will be held by email the week of May 28.

Three Community Members to be Elected

Nomination

Each year we elect three at-large members of the VIVO community to the Leadership Group for one year. Anyone affiliated with a VIVO member institution can nominate up to three people, and anyone in the VIVO community can be nominated to serve as a community member of the LG.

At least four nominations must be received. If less than four nominations are received, nominations will remain open.

Nominations must be received by midnight, June 25, eastern U.S. time.

Election

Three members of the Leadership Group will be elected from among those nominated by VIVO community members at VIVO member institutions. The community liaison at each member institution will receive a non-transferable ballot and will cast one ballot per member institution, selecting up to three candidates. The top three vote-getters will be elected to the Leadership Group. In the case of ties, there will be a run-off among the tied candidates.

The election will be held the week of June TBA.
